A REVOLTING CRIME.

A Tarrible Triple Murder Near Richmond, Mo.

Naman an Two Little Calldren Killed

Were Evidences in the House of a Terrible Struggle for Life.

Richmond, Mo., Oct. 27. A triple purder occurred eight miles northeast if this city last night. The victims were he wite and two little children of Jesse the wife and two little children of Jesse Winner. The shildren were aged 3 and 1 year. Winner works in the mines at Richmond. The victims were evidently killed early last night, but their bodies were not discovered till this morning.

The body of Mrs. Winner with the head mashed out of shape was found lying in the lyard in a pool of blood. The body of the older girl was found on a bed and that of the baby on the floor under the best. The throats of the children were cost:

All around the house and in the yard were evidences of a terrible struggle. The woman evidently did not give up until the zasassin had struck her a dead-photon of the dead, cleaving the skully blow on the dead, cleaving the skully blow on the head, cleaving the skully by blow on, the head, cleaving the skuli and cutting the top of the head off.

There is, no clue to the assassin. A little deaf and dumb girl, the child of Mrs. Winner by a former marriage, wes present when the murder was committed, but is unable to tell anything of the crime.

The coming of so distinguished a statesman as Mr. Boutelle to take part in the California campaign has been a great stimulus to Reput lican arder. It has made it certain that the it flacuce of California in National affairs is recognized in the East and that the Republican leaders of that section in their broad National patriotism and policy do not overlook this far-off State on the Western shores of the continent. They have sent to us one of the ablest and most eloquent of the great statesmen of the party to help as in this contest for prosperity, for good government; and for National honor.

The audience which assembled to hear Mr. Boutelle was in every way worthy of the orator and of the occasion. While some may have gone to the ball out of curiosity to see and hear so eminent a tative of our public men, the great majority were there because of a profound liberest in the issues of the day and an enmest desire to hear them die cuseed by one so well fitted to do it. The speech was a masterly presentation of the condition of the country and the remedy for existing evils. EXPLANATION ASKED Of the Populists in Georgia.

Atlenta, Ga., Oct. 27.—The subcommittee of the Democrats appointed to reply to the Populist proff ir of fusion has given out its repix. The letter says that the Populists wrote an insulting communication to the Democrats and then cut them off from considering it by amounting that it was the Populist ultimatum. The Democrats say that fusion on fair terms might have been arranged if the Populists bed approached it in a different spirit. The Populists arranged to explain their action in taking down Mr. Watson, their own candidate in his own state.

He spoke of many of the judges before whom he had bad cases and said that many pleusant reminiscences has been connected with his practice. Mr. Paine referred to some of the judges whom he had known and began with Judge Story, who he said was a man of peculiarly pleasant manners. Another was Judge Kent, who was in some respects unexampled except possibly by Judge Story. Chief Justice Marshall was referred to in terms of high praise and as one to whom the people owed a debt of gratitude. Mr.

Paine said there were sixty or seventy members of the Bar in the early times members of the Bar in the early times and he mentioned a number of the most emisent by name.

The changes in the method of practice were referred to by the speaker and also the improvements in the statutes, among which he mentioned the disposition of property in interstate estates.

He casts binneelf into the water, not to commit suicide, but, on the contrary, to fulfill his part as a father. He is seen to more about, to wriggle and roll over and over like a madman. At last he stops. That is because he has succeeded in detaching the chaplet of eggs that had become glued to his body. He climbs up the bank again, soluenly leaving the eggs in the water. They soon complete their development, and from each egg issues a tadpole. The marriage ring thus provides 200 stadpoles! Gen. H. L. Mitchell's Remarks. Gen. H. L. Mitchell was the third speaker.
